Tract 1: 51 Acres m/l situated along the old & new channels of the Chariton River in Sections 19, 20 & 29, Township 52N, Range 17W of Chariton County. This acreage is 78% tillable with the remaining balance in flood protection levee. The property is accessed by a field road to the north of the property along the levee in which the property soils are protected. Soils consist primarily of Tice silt loam, Tina silt loam, and Carlow silty clay.

Directions: North of Glasgow on Hwy 5, take a left on French Rd. approximately 1 mile to the field road that runs to the south to then along the levee to the property. This is a private field road so please make arrangements to access this property. It is not permissible to drive on the levee. The property must be accessed via the private field road.

Tract 2: 69 acres m/l situated north and west of Doxie Ave. in Sections 21 & 28, Township 52N, Range 17W of Chariton County. This acreage is 68% tillable. The tillable acreage consists of creek bottom to the north which slopes up to upland and then to pasture. There is 5.56 acres of pasture and the remaining acreage is in woods and building site. The building site consists of an older Harvestore cattle feeding set-up surrounded by the pasture. The Doxie Creeks makes up the northern border of the property. Soils consist of Menfro silt loam, Knox silt loam, and Carlow silty clay.

Tract 3: 72 acres m/l situated southeast of Doxie Ave. in Sections 28 & 29, Township 52N, Range 17W of Chariton County. This acreage is approximately 52% tillable with one bottom field and two upland fields. The remaining acreage is woods. Soils consist primarily of Nodaway silt loam and Knox silt loam. The upland of this acreage has a panoramic view of the bottoms along Hwy 5 and would make an excellent building site. The Doxie Creek snakes through the property adding to the diversity of this

Directions to Tract 2 & 3: North of Glasgow on Hwy 5, take a right on Doxie Ave. Tracts 2 & 3 begin just past the Doxie Creek Bridge with Tract 2 lying on the North and East side of Doxie Ave and Tract 3 on the Southwest side of Doxie Ave.
